PART II—Section 3—Sub-section (i)

General Statutory Rules (including orders, bye-laws etc. of a general character) issued by the Ministries of the Government of India (other than the Ministry of Defence) and by Central Authorities (other than the Administrations of Union Territories).

MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS

New Delhi, the 3rd June 1964

THE CENTRAL SECRETARIAT CLERICAL SERVICE (COMPETITIVE EXAMINATION) REGULATIONS 1964

G.S.R. 849.—In pursuance of sub-rule (1) of rule 12 of the Central Secretariat Clerical Service Rules, 1962, the Ministry of Home Affairs, in consultation with the Union Public Service Commission hereby makes the following regulations, namely:—

1. Short Title.—These regulations may be called the Central Secretariat Clerical Service (Competitive Examination) Regulations, 1964.

2. Definitions.—(1) In these regulations unless the context otherwise requires,—
(a) "available vacancy" means the vacancies in the Lower Division Grade of the Service which are decided to be filled on the results of an examination;

(b) "examination" means a competitive examination held by the Commission for direct recruitment to the Lower Division Grade of the Service;

(c) "Schedule" means the Schedule appended to these regulations; and

(d) 'Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes' shall have the same meanings as are assigned to them by clauses (24) and (25) respectively of article 366 of the Constitution of India.

(2) All other words and expressions used in these regulations and not defined herein shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in the Central Secretariat Clerical Service Rules, 1962.

3. Holding of the Examination. (1) The examination shall be conducted by the Commission in the manner notified by the Ministry of Home Affairs from time to time.

(2) The dates on which and the places at which the examination shall be held shall be fixed by the Commission.

4. Condition of Eligibility. In order to be eligible to compete at the examination, a candidate must satisfy the following conditions, namely:—

(1) Nationality—

(a) He must be a citizen of India.

Or

(b) He must belong to such categories of persons as may from time to time be notified in this behalf by the Ministry of Home Affairs.

(ii) Age—He must have attained the age of 18 years and must not have attained the age of 21 years on the first day of January of the year in which the examination is held.

Provided that—

(a) the upper age limit shall be relaxed upto 35 years in respect of persons who are employed as clerks in the subordinate offices of the Government of India (including such offices under the Election Commission, Commissioner for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes, Commissioner for Linguistic Minorities) and have rendered not less than three years' continuous service as clerks in such offices on the 1st January of the year in which the examination is held, and continue to be so employed

- (b) the upper age limit may also be relaxed in respect of such other categories of persons as may be notified in this behalf by the Ministry of Home Affairs, from time to time, to the extent notified in respect of each category.

NOTE: A candidate who is admitted to the examination under the age concession mentioned in clause (a) of the proviso above, will not be eligible for appointment if, after submitting the application for the examination, he resigns from service either before or after taking the examination. He will, however, continue to be eligible if he is retrenched from his service or post after submitting the application for the examination.

- (iii) Educational Qualifications.—He must have passed one of the examinations or obtained one of the qualifications or diplomas mentioned in the Schedule:

Provided that in exceptional cases, the Commission may treat a candidate as qualified who though not possessing any of the qualifications prescribed in this clause, has passed examinations conducted by other institutions if the examinations are, in the opinion of the Commission, of a standard sufficient to justify his admission to the examination.

- (iv) Attempts at the Examination—Unless covered by any of the exceptions notified by the Ministry of Home Affairs from time to time, in this behalf, he should not already have competed more than once at the examinations held after the 1st January, 1961.

- (v) Fees.—Subject to such exemptions or concessions or both as may be notified in this behalf by the Ministry of Home Affairs from time to time, he shall pay the fees prescribed by the Commission.

5. Canvassing of Candidature.—Any attempt on the part of a candidate to obtain support for his candidature by any means may be held by the Commission to disqualify him for admission to the examination.

6. Decision as to the Eligibility.—The decision of the Commission as to the eligibility or otherwise of a candidate for admission to the examination shall be final and no candidate to whom a certificate of admission has not been issued by the Commission shall be admitted to the examination.

7. Results.—(1) The names of the candidates who are considered by the Commission in their discretion to be suitable for appointment on the results of the examination shall be arranged in the order of merit and subject to the provisions of sub-regulation (5) of regulation 8, they shall be recommended for appointment in that order upto the number of appointment, decided to be made.

(2) The form and manner of communication of the results of the examination to individual candidates shall be decided by the Commission in their discretion.

8. Appointment.—(1) Success in the examination confers no right to appointment in the Lower Division Grade of the Service unless Government are satisfied after such enquiry as may be considered necessary, that the candidate is suitable in all respects for appointment to the public service.

(2) No candidate shall be appointed to the Lower Division Grade of the Service who after such medical examination as the Central Government may prescribe, is not found to be in good mental or bodily health and free from any mental or physical defects likely to interfere with the discharge of the duties of the Service.

(3) No person who has more than one wife living or who, having a spouse living, marries in any case in which such marriage is void by reason of its taking place during the life time of such spouse, and no woman whose marriage is void by reason of the husband having a wife living at the time of such marriage or who has married a person who has a wife living at the time of such marriage, shall be eligible for any appointment on the results of the examination:

Provided that the Central Government may, if satisfied that there are special grounds for so ordering, exempt any person from the operation of this sub-regulation.

(4) Save as provided in sub-regulation (5) of this regulation, appointments to the Lower Division Grade of the Service on the results of any examination shall be made to the extent of the available vacancies in the order of merit of the candidates recommended by the Commission for appointment, subject to reservations for the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes in accordance with the orders issued by the Ministry of Home Affairs in this behalf from time to time.

(5) Candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes who are considered by the Commission in their discretion to be suitable for appointment on the results of the examination with due regard to the maintenance of efficiency of administration shall be eligible to be appointed to the vacancies reserved for them irrespective of their ranks in the order of merit in the examination.

9. Penalty for Impersonation or other Misconduct.—A candidate who is or has been declared by the Commission guilty of impersonation or of submitting fabricated documents or documents which have been tampered with or of making statements which are incorrect or false or of suppressing material information or otherwise resorting to any other irregular or improper means for obtaining admission to the examination or of using or attempting to use unfair means in the examination hall or of misbehaviour in the examination hall, may, in addition to rendering himself liable to criminal prosecution,

(a) be debarred permanently or for a specified period—

(i) by the Commission, from admission to any examination or appearance at any interview held by the Commission for selection of candidates; and

(ii) by the Central Government from employment under Government;

(b) be liable to disciplinary action under the appropriate rules if he is already in service under Government.

ANNEXURE

THE MADRAS DRAMATIC PERFORMANCES ACT, 1954 AS EXTENDED TO THE UNION TERRITORY OF DELHI.

(Madras Act XXXIII of 1954)

An Act to provide for the better control of public dramatic performances in the State of Madras.

Whereas it is expedient to provide for the better control of public dramatic performances in the State of Madras;

Be it enacted in the Fifth Year of the Republic of India as follows:

1. Short title and extent.—(1) This Act may be called the Madras Dramatic Performances Act, 1954.

(2) It extends to the whole of the Union territory of Delhi.

2. Definitions.—In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

(1) “objectionable performance” means any play, pantomime or other drama which is likely to—

(i) incite any person to resort to violence or sabotage for the purpose of overthrowing or undermining the Government established by law in India or in any State thereof or its authority in any area; or

(ii) incite any person to commit murder, sabotage or any offence involving violence; or

(iii) seduce any member of any of the armed forces of the Union or of the police forces from his allegiance or his duty, or prejudice the recruiting of persons to serve in any such force or prejudice the discipline of any such force; or

(iv) incite any section of the citizens of India to acts of violence against any other section of the citizens of India; or which—

(v) is deliberately intended to outrage the religious feelings of any class of the citizens of India by insulting or blaspheming or profaning the religion or the religious beliefs of that class; or

(vi) is grossly indecent, or is scurrilous or obscene or intended for blackmail;

Explanation I.—A performance shall not be deemed to be objectionable merely because in the course thereof words are uttered, or signs or visible representations are made, expressing disapprobation or criticism of any law or of any policy of administrative action of the Government with a view to obtain its alteration or redress by lawful means.

Explanation II.—In judging whether any performance is an objectionable performance, the play, pantomime or other drama shall be considered as a whole.

(2) “Public place” means any building or enclosure, or any place in the open air and any pandal where the sides are not enclosed to which the public are admitted to witness a performance;

(3) “Chief Commissioner” means the Chief Commissioner of Delhi.

3. Power to prohibit objectionable performances.—(1) Whenever the Chief Commissioner is satisfied that any play, pantomime or other drama performed or about to be performed in a public place is an objectionable performance, he may, by order stating the grounds on which he considers the performance objectionable, prohibit the performance.

(2) No order under sub-section (1) shall be passed without giving a reasonable opportunity to the organizer or other principal persons responsible for the conduct of the performance or to the owner or occupier of the public place in which such performance is intended to take place to show cause why the performance should not be prohibited.

(3) Every order made under sub-section (1) shall be published in the Delhi Gazette.

(4) Any order made under sub-section (1) may also be notified by proclamation and a written or printed notice thereof may be affixed at any place or places adapted for giving information of the order to the persons intending to take part in the performance so prohibited.

4. Power to prohibit objectionable performances temporarily.—(1) The District Magistrate may, if he is of opinion that any play, pantomime or other drama performed or about to be performed, being of the nature specified in section 2, is likely to lead to a breach of the peace, by order stating the grounds for such opinion, prohibit its performance:

Provided that the District Magistrate may review such order on an application made by the person or party affected by such order.

(2) Subject to any order made by the Court on appeal under section 10, an order under this section shall remain in force for two months from the making thereof:

Provided that the District Magistrate may, if he is of opinion that the order should continue in force, by such further order or orders as he may deem fit, extend the period aforesaid by such further period or periods not exceeding two months at a time as may be specified in such order or orders.

5. Service of order of prohibition.—A copy of the order made under section 3, sub-section (1), or under section 4, sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), may be served personally or in such other manner as may be prescribed by rules made under section 13, on the organizers or other principal persons responsible for the conduct of or any person about to take part in, the performance so prohibited or on the owner or occupier of the public place, in which such performance is intended to take place.

6. Penalty for disobeying order.—Any person on whom a copy of the order referred to in section 3 or section 4 is served and who does, or willingly permits, any act in disobedience of such order, shall, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both.

7. Penalty for disobeying prohibition.—(1) Any person who, after publication of an order under section 3, sub-section (3), or during the period when an order made under section 4, sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), is in force, organizes or is responsible for the conduct of, or who with the knowledge that such an order under section 3 or section 4 is in force takes part in, the performance prohibited thereby or any performance substantially the same as the performance so prohibited, shall, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both.

(2) Any person who being the owner or occupier, or having the use of any public place, opens, keeps or uses the same for any performance prohibited under section 3 or section 4, or permits the same to be opened, kept or used for any such performance, shall on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both.

8. Power to call for information.—(1) For the purpose of ascertaining the character of any intended play, pantomime or other drama, the Chief Commissioner, or such officer as he may empower in this behalf, may, by order, require the organizers or other principal persons responsible for the conduct of, or other persons about to take part in, such play, pantomime or other drama or the author, proprietor or printer of the play, pantomime or other drama about to be performed, or the owner or occupier of the place in which it is intended to be performed, to furnish such information as the Chief Commissioner or such officer may think necessary.

(2) Every person so required shall be bound to furnish the information to the best of his ability within the time specified in such order and in case of contravention shall be deemed to have committed an offence under section 176 of the Indian Penal Code (Central Act XLV of 1860).

9. Power to call for copy of purport of drama, etc.—(1) If the Chief Commissioner or the District Magistrate has reason to believe that an objectionable dramatic performance is about to take place, the Chief Commissioner or the District Magistrate, as the case may be, may, by order, direct that no such dramatic performance shall take place in any public place within any area, unless a copy of the piece, if and so far as it is written, or some sufficient account of its purport, if and so far as it is in pantomime, has been furnished, not less than seven days before the performance, to him.

(2) A copy of any order made under sub-section (1) may be served on the owner or occupier of the public place in which such performance is intended to take place, and if thereafter he does or willingly permits, any act in disobedience of such order, he shall, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both.

10. Appeal to High Court.—(1) Any person aggrieved by an order under section 3, sub-section (1), or under section 4, sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), may, within sixty days of the publication of such order under section 3, sub-section (3), or, as the case may be, within sixty days of the date on which an order under section 4, sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), is made, prefer an appeal to the High Court; and upon such appeal, the High Court may pass such orders as it deems fit confirming, varying or reversing the order appealed from, and may pass such consequential or incidental orders as may be necessary.

(2) Every such appeal shall be heard by a Bench of not less than two Judges.

11. Saving of prosecutions under other laws.—Where no order under section 3 or section 4 has been made in respect of any performance, nothing in this Act shall bar a prosecution under the Indian Penal Code (Central Act XLV of 1860) or any other law.

12. Protection for acts done in good faith.—No suit, prosecution, or other legal proceeding shall be instituted against any authority or officer for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act or any rule made thereunder.

13. Power to make rules.—(1) The Chief Commissioner may, by notification in the Delhi Gazette, make rules to carry out the purposes of this Act.
